Recognizing God in Our Ordinary Moments

In the days after the awful 2020 killing of George Floyd, a Catholic friend remarked, "Racism is today's great evil. We should put all our energy into fighting it." I admired her intuition that the church must stand firmly against evil. Amen, I thought. At the same time, something felt wrong. As months went by, I saw her steadily slide into bitterness and anger. Soon, despondency. She spoke of giving up the fight. Don't we too wonder how to fight evil without losing our joy or energy?

Jesus' words this week help. He says, "Rejoice not that you have power over demons, but that your names are written in heaven" (Luke 10:20). Notice the asymmetry in where he wants our focus: on the latter, not the former. Should we confidently embrace our God-given power to overcome evil? Absolutely. But even more so, we should emphasize the positive element of our relationship to God. It is tempting but dangerous to define ourselves by what we oppose. It is better to define ourselves by—to rejoice in—what we celebrate: in Jesus, God has written our names in heaven. This sustains our battles.

This week, our marching orders are: fight evil. But more deeply, rejoice that God knows and loves us personally, individually. We allow this joyful knowledge to undergird our fight against the darkness of our day. Then we enjoy long-term stability to be cheerful warriors, who never forget the reason for the contests we are called to fight and win: love.

Adirondack Regional Immigration Collaborative (ARIC.network) and Lifeworks (lifeworksaction.org) are holding a training day intended to create a supportive community for immigrants and temporary workers. The training is designed for workers, schools, employers, churches, agencies and caring neighbors and will consist of Know Your Rights and Rapid Response workshops. It is free and will be held in North Creek on July 12th. If you are interested, email Regina Chabarek: rchabare@nycap.rr.com. She will send you details and registration information.

St. Anne Society: will have a Bake Sale on Sunday, July 27th after Mass at Blessed Sacrament, Bolton Landing.

Jubilee 2025
Pilgrimage Sites
Within Our Diocese

Our Roman Catholic Diocese of Albany is fortunate to have five Jubilee Pilgrimages within our Diocese!
Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, 125 Eagle Street, Albany, NY
Our Lady of Martyrs Shrine, 136 Shrine Road in Fultonville, NY which is now a national shrine.
Saint Kateri Tekakwitha National Shrine, 3636 NY-Route 5, Fonda, NY
Rosa Mystica Shirine, 484 Angel Hill Road, Edmeston, NY.

For all of us, may Jubilee 2025 be an opportunity to be renewed in hope!
